RE: Raymond D. Leard
Scoutmaster - T 686 to 2/63

Dear Howard:

This man is now in jail in Port Angeles, Washington, and has pleaded guilty to taking indecent liberties with two boys of his troop. I have a letter of information to this fact from Deputy Sheriff, Thomas Rooney. In addition, I had a conversation with Superior Court Judge, Max Church, of our Executive Board, today who indicated he will commit this man to 90 day observation in the State Mental Hospital before determining his sentence.

It is our belief this man must be placed in the Confidential File. Please send me a confidential record sheet immediately so that I may follow through with the proper procedure.

Cordially,

Bob McConnell
Bob McConnell
Scout Executive

P.S. Understand you had a good day going around Mt. Hood after the annual meeting. Hurray! I had a relaxing and stimulating week at Philmont to recuperate on and am now up to my ears in getting acquainted with a new council.

Best personal regards.
